Jabberwocky

Live at Winget Studios Grieg ~ Icherepnin ~ Beethoven

It all began when we composed a score for the film Deepstill. Then we decided to start a band, Jabberwocky, and our own record label, Hungarian Heffalump Music. We enjoyed a great creative partnership as we went on to record three more projects together: The Budapest Sessions, Live at Winget Studios, and One. However, with the passing of time and the fact that one of us now lives on the East Coast and the other on the West, we decided it was time to end the Hungarian Heffalump Music label and disband Jabberwock y . . . for now. This new collection gathers together our favorite tracks from the Jabberwocky years, celebrating the frienship of two guys who loved experimentation, live recordings . . . and mythical creatures. Enjoy.

All tracks produced by Robert Brown and Grant Dicks.
